

Overview

TRR Electronics Co., Ltd. is a state-owned capital holding company whose main business is R & D, manufacturing of discrete semiconductor products. It was founded in 2000. In May 2016, it was successfully listed in the national NEEQ stock market with the stock code "836879", referred to as "Mingde shares".

TRR Electronics has core technologies in many fields such as wafers, packaging, device testing and application design. It is committed to the development, sales and application solution design of new components, and has accumulated various of nationally authorized invention patents. The company focuses on providing users with industry-specific and customized products and services.

